

Active Fire Management Ltd

Trust our knowledge, trust our service, trust us

At Active Fire Management we have a wealth of experience in the delivery of fire safety training courses for many organisations throughout the country. Our friendly, competent and experienced fire instructors deliver enjoyable and informative fire training courses that your staff will find enlightening and memorable to ensure information is retained.

Basic Fire Safety Training Course (3 Hours)

Upon completion of the course participants will have sound knowledge of fire prevention measures. They will have greater awareness of the danger of fire and how to prevent fires from occurring. Participants will be prepared for fire and know what to do should fire break out.

Furthermore, participants will gain essential knowledge of:

- ◆ Their responsibilities with regard to fire safety
- ◆ The danger of fire and how fire can spread
- ◆ How to reduce the risk of fire
- ◆ The threat to people and property
- ◆ How to combat the effects of fire and smoke
- ◆ Fire procedures and why they are implemented
- ◆ The action to take upon discovery of fire and the urgency of raising the alarm
- ◆ The different types of fire extinguisher and the classes of fire on which they should be used
- ◆ Health and safety when using extinguishers

Our friendly and experienced training instructors will offer all the assistance and support necessary to ensure that participants walk away with maximum gains through enhanced knowledge, newly acquired skills and a clear thought process on key responsibilities relating to fire safety.

Basic Fire Safety Training for all members of staff is a legal requirement under the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order. Active Fire Management deliver this training course on a national basis to thousands of people across the country each year.

Courses are delivered for up to 20 delegates at a time in our clients own premises. For larger groups of delegates we frequently deliver two courses per day. All course programmes can be customised to meet any specific requirement of any organisation or individual attending.

Our clients consist of a range of organisations including housing associations, hospitals, hotels, nursing homes, offices, factories, airlines, schools and warehouses.
